MINUTE ORDER

14 The following Minute Order is made by direction of the Court, the Honorable Thomas S. Zilly, United States District Judge:

15 (1) Plaintiff's Motion to Compel, docket no. 31, is GRANTED in part and 16 DENIED in part. Plaintiff's motion is denied with respect to Request for Production No.
17 10B, which seeks "an electronic copy of the .pst folder . . . from defendant's file server at 18 the time of Plaintiff's termination for" numerous individuals who worked with or 19 supervised Plaintiff. Defendant has already provided nearly all responsive emails 20 regarding Plaintiff with the exception of a portion of Michael Gladish's emails, which 21 Defendant has promised to produce. To the extent Plaintiff seeks the totality of these 22 individuals' emails—including those unrelated to her employment—that request seeks 23 material that is not relevant to the claims or defenses in this matter and is not proportional to the needs of the case. Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). Plaintiff's motion is granted with respect to Requests for Production 36-47 and 49-58, which seek documents related to "any discipline imposed" on various individuals. Defendant claims "discipline" is a "term of art" with a narrow meaning defined by employee collective bargaining agreements. See Declaration of Priscilla Chan, docket no. 35, ¶¶ 20-21. But Plaintiff's

1 requests do not cite that narrower meaning. “Discipline” should be given its ordinary 2 meaning: any supervisory intervention of any kind to address any conduct by a specific 3 individual or individuals viewed negatively by management. See U.S. ex rel. Englund v.
4 Los Angeles County, 235 F.R.D. 675, 684 (E.D. Cal. 2006) (“A party may not avoid 5 responding based on technicalities When the purpose and significance of a request 6 are reasonably clear, courts do not permit denials based on an overly-technical reading of 7 the request.”) (citing Holmgren v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 976 F.2d 573, 580 (9th 8 Cir. 1992)). Whether Defendant meted out comparable discipline—whether formal or 9 otherwise—to Plaintiff and other employees who engaged in conduct viewed negatively
10 by management is directly relevant to the claims in this lawsuit. Defendant must produce 11 all responsive, non-privileged documents to Requests for Production 36-47 and 49-58, 12 including but not limited to Cease and Desist Letters, Letters of Reprimand, and any 13 other formal or informal written discipline imposed upon the specified individuals. Such 14 production must also include documents related to the incidents described in the Second 15 Declaration of Aubrie D. Hicks, docket no. 36-1, ¶¶ 5-14.

9 (2) The Court declines to award attorneys’ fees to Plaintiff in connection with 10 this motion because Defendant’s position regarding the discovery was substantially 11 justified as it sought to clarify the meaning of “discipline” in Plaintiff’s requests. See 12 Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(5).

11 (3) The discovery completion deadline is extended until March 15, 2019.
12 Plaintiff may re-notice depositions that were postponed and/or cancelled due to 13 Defendant’s failure to provide responsive documents in advance.

13 (4) The Court declines Plaintiff’s requests—newly raised in her reply brief—to 14 propound additional requests for production and for Defendant to undergo a forensic 15 examination to evaluate Defendant’s compliance with discovery obligations imposed by 16 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

16 (5) The Clerk is directed to send a copy of this Minute Order to all counsel of 17 record.

17 Dated this 7th day of January, 2019.
